The first system of the piano introduction consists of two staves. The right staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 4/4 time signature. It features a series of chords and moving lines. The left staff begins with a bass clef and contains a bass line with eighth and quarter notes.

The second system continues the piano introduction with two staves. The right staff has a treble clef and contains a melodic line with some grace notes. The left staff has a bass clef and continues the bass line from the first system.
